BY ARTHUR BRISBANE

Incongruous juxtaposition: In one column you see the heading, "Monkey Bites a King," and in the next column, "Hoover Attacks Wilson."

The king was Alexander of Greece. In his disaster there is a lesson for us and a warning for advocates of the peace league, also for Uncle Sam.

The king's pet monkey was fighting the king's dog. The king's kind heart suggested that he ought to do something, so he accepted the mandate, entered that dog-monkey league of fighters and got well bitten on the hand.

Result: Two attacks of fever, intestinal complications and jaundice.

That is nothing to what Uncle Sam would undergo, if he should by an avowed League of Nations bind himself to take part in all the dog and monkey fights that break out in Europe, Asia and Africa.

Kings should keep away from monkeys and American Republics from European squabbles.

Mr. Hoover, in his attack on Woodrow Wilson, talks plainly, and La Fontaine's kind peasant that warned the snake in his breast was no more startled at the snake bite probably, than Mr. Wilson at Hoover's statement that the Wilson rule has been a flat failure. In the wash, following a war, strange things come out.

Abou-el-hadd, once Sultan of Morocco, sends here for sale the largest diamond that ever crossed the ocean. It is light straw color, weighs 183 carats, and soon will help some middle-aged American lady to repair what Athalia, daughter of Jezebel, called "the irreparable outrage of the year."

Works of art, fat diamonds, wooden linings of ancient castles and churches keep drifting here, and we ask, "Will any of this take root? Shall we some day produce some art, in addition to buying it ready-made and very ancient?" Certainly we shall. Don't be discouraged because financial pirates, collecting jackdaws, gather a humble crowd of gaudy and gaudy. The Venetians were all thieves at first. They ran out on the marshes to get away from the gibbet. They built Venice and ships, got rich, collected at first, then created. And in Voltaire's day, as he said, the oldest noble family in Europe was the family of the Venetians. That shows that you can build art and aristocracy on a muddy foundation—nothing but mud and water under Venice. We'll be artistic here some day and have our New York Medical encouraging live artists, instead of merely enriching shrewd dealers. Meanwhile, the Venetians, who imitated old Greek sculpture, buried it, dug it up and sold it to a Cardinal.

What a brain England possesses in Lord George. How many Englishmen of average intelligence would you have to toll down to get a mental extract as strong as the Welshman. Refusing to give Ireland dominion home rule, the same home-rule as in Canada, George puts his finger at once on the danger spot—for England.

If Ireland were able to make her laws she could conserve the arm of five hundred thousand fishermen that is the figure mentioned by Lord George. England gets along with an army of 100,000. Englishmen do not like conscription and are "fed up" on army life. If Ireland conscripted 500,000 men, England would have to do the same and then fight the German fishermen. To that suggestion Lord George says, "No, thank you." Intelligent man.

Harding says that while our queer government talks idealism, England reaches out to control the world's oil supply and other business. All the oil of Mesopotamia and Persia, and the other day 200,000 more acres of Mexican oil lands England has recently collected.

Our dresy government, so far from realities, reminds you of the bankrupt in the debtor's prison, figuring out his plan for paying off the national debt. With Harding elected the country will have an employee aware of the fact that his first job is to bring business to his own firm, the U. S. A.

After 62 days without food, Lord Mayor MacSwiney is still alive. But he and the other starved men failed in Ireland and, in fact, dead, doomed beyond hope. It is as though they had died and come back to testify for their country. If they were all set free tomorrow all would die when they ate food. The doctors say it is now too late for them to eat and live.

Germany is distressed and shamed by an outbreak of immorality, especially of wild "naked dances" in big cities. It is all part of war, ending in disaster. Morals become cheap, ambition dies, when life is made to seem cheap and hope departs. The German demoralization, limited to a few in cities and caused by the country's hopeless outlook, recalls the "dance of death" of the middle ages. You may see the death dance painted on walls of cemeteries in Italy and elsewhere. Grimacing skeletons dance with women, men drink and laugh as they tumble into the grave. The pest, striking like

INDIANA GIVES COX BIG SEND-OFF; WOMEN ASSURE HIM THEY'RE FOR LEAGUE

COX SAYS HARDING LOST THOUSANDS OF DES MOINES VOTES

(International News Service.)

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 13.—"We've got them licked," Senator Taggart told Governor Cox today as they left for another day's strenuous campaigning tour of central and northern Indiana.

Both Taggart and Cox are enthusiastic as the result of the reception accorded Cox.

The governor's program today includes speeches at Delphi, Logansport, Peru, Wabash and Fort Wayne, with rear platform speeches in between.

A committee of Indiana women urged upon the governor that some short symbol be adopted to indicate the party support of the League of Nations, which they assert women of Indiana approve, not from political but from a religious motive.

Cox today continued his attack on Harding for his alleged vacillation respecting the league. Harding's declaration at Des Moines, Cox said, cost him thousands of votes, and his managers are quick to recognize the fact. "That explains his sudden change of front," said Cox.

AIRMAN KNOCKS HIS CHIMNEY

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

DES MOINES, Oct. 13.—Rub your specs, Grandpa, this is what it says in a newspaper here: "Can I sue the man who knocked the chimney off my roof with his foot airplane?" queried a Highland Park resident on the telephone. "I think you can but I'll give you the police airplane squad for further information," replied Desk Sergeant William Brownson.

SINN FEIN POLICE RESORT TO QUEER METHODS PUNISHMENT

(The Associated Press.)

DUBLIN, Ireland, Oct. 13.—The Sinn Fein police resort to old or unusual methods of punishing minor offenders. They marched a prisoner to a telephone pole at the national bank recently and fastened him to the pole with a rope. A board affixed to his breast bore the inscription, "I am a thief."

Crowds gathered around him and inspected the prisoner who vainly tried to effect his release. Ultimately his sister hearing of her brother's plight came on the scene and liberated him. It is reported that she has also been placed under arrest.

An engine driver of a munition train was military served in Dublin. He was tied to a lamp post opposite the railway station in Amiens street, with the word "scab" on a card suspended round his neck. A large crowd gazed on him for half an hour when the police released him after filing through a padlock and handcuffs.

There are more than 5000 living animals of 1000 species in the New York zoological gardens.

Late Mrs. Bennett To Be Buried at 3 Sunday Afternoon

The late Mrs. Victoria Bennett, wife of Captain S. Bennett, of the tourist hotel, and one of the oldest settlers of Daytona, who passed away Tuesday morning, will be buried at Pinewood cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Services will be conducted at the tourist hotel, the home of the deceased for the past twenty years, at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. W. L. Lewis officiating. Mrs. Bennett having been a member of the Congregational church for many years. Bingham & Maley, funeral directors, will be in charge of arrangements.

The time of the services have been arranged so that all three sons of the late Mrs. Bennett might reach Daytona, the oldest son, Shumons T. Bennett, coming from Portland, Me., expecting to arrive in the city early Sunday. A second son, Clarence, who resides at Palm Beach, was called here yesterday by the sad intelligence of his mother's death. The third son, Drew H. Bennett, resides with his parents, and assisted in the conducting of the tourist hotel.

A friend of Daytona and vicinity for the past half century, the passing of Mrs. Bennett leaves but a few in this neighborhood who took such a great part in the upbuilding of the community in the pioneer days.

M'SWINEY SAYS HE'S "ABOUT PLAYED OUT"; MUCH WEAKER TODAY

(The Associated Press.)

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Lord Mayor MacSwiney spent a bad night, was weaker and his mind was not so clear today. On the 62nd day of his hunger strike he said, "I feel I am about played out." These words he kept repeating today.

CANNOT ACCEPT A PLEA OF GUILTY; KIDNAPING CASE

(The Associated Press.)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—Although now satisfied that their prisoner killed the child as he confessed and sank the body in the river, authorities say August Pasquale cannot be tried for the murder of Blakely Coughlin, aged 13 months, whom he first kidnaped, because the body cannot be found.

His confession cannot even be introduced until a corpus delicti is shown.

MANY RECEPTIONS PLANNED FOR THE INDIAN CHAMPIONS

(The Associated Press.)

CLEVELAND, Oct. 13.—After 42 years of striving Cleveland today was actually the world championship baseball city as the result of the Indian victory over Brooklyn yesterday and the whole populace is trying to outdo itself in showing their appreciation.

Many big celebrations, arranged in honor of the players and their prowess in winning the coveted title, will be held in the next few days, beginning tonight with a big reception to the players in Wade Park. All agree that the best team won.

JAPAN HEAVY BUYERS OF MUNITION AND WAR MATERIALS ALL KINDS

(International News Service.)

LONDON, Oct. 13.—That Japan alone of all great countries of the world are now heavy buyers of munitions and other war supplies, is a revelation made to the International News Service today by a reliable source.

Japan's purchases involve secret contracts and widespread inquiries for war materials by Japanese secret agents who are said to be as active as they were just preceding the Russo-Japanese war.

ONE MORE DAY TO DO DUTY

With but one day remaining on which registration for the November election may be made, white women of Daytona are urged to call to the colors, to register that they may poll a 100 per cent vote on November 2, the last remaining day of registration being Saturday, October 16th, after which the books will be closed.

While no charge has been made locally that an effort has been made to register negro women illegally, such has been the case in a number of Florida cities, principally in Jacksonville, where yesterday 500 warrants were issued for the arrest of negro women charged with swearing falsely in registering for the coming election.

Authorities in that city state there is evidently a strong impelling power behind some of the women who have violated the law in order to become voters. Every effort is being made to determine the identity of those who are threatening the negro women with pain and sudden death unless they get on the registration books.

The attention of county officials was first directed to this channel when a negro woman named Junita Allen, of 1103 Missouri street, told County Registration Officer Frank Ironmonger that she had been threatened with death if she did not swear to a lie regarding her age in order that she could vote.

When this fact became known, a number of investigators went to work immediately, and it is reported that they have learned some information of decided importance.

The 500 warrants for the arrest of negro women were sworn out before Justice of the Peace John W. DuBose, after members of the Duval county Democratic committee had carefully checked over the list of those who have registered.

Severe penalties are promised those who have sworn falsely to their age in registering, and more severe punishment is promised those who have threatened negro women with death if they did not swear falsely in registering.

Apparently the very thing which was feared would happen if suffrage passed without preliminary legislation to take care of it in the South has come about, and the only method possible to overcome such a condition is for every white woman who has the best interests of the South and of the country at heart, to register and cast a vote in the November election.

KING OF GREECE IS AGAIN IN CRITICAL CONDITION FROM BITE

(The Associated Press.)

ATHENS, Greece, Oct. 13.—King Alexander of Greece, who recently suffered a monkey bite, is in a critical condition today. He has suffered a shivering fit and had a high fever yesterday.

The king was bitten when he tried to stop a fight between his dog and his monkey.

ELKS TO HAVE REAL ELK MEAT AS TREAT ON ROLL CALL NIGHT

The last meeting in the month of October with the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is observed throughout the nation as Roll Call night, and Daytona Lodge No. 1141 will observe the occasion on the evening of October 26 with appropriate ceremonies.

On this night all members of Daytona lodge are expected to be present and answer when the roll is called. As a special inducement to get all members to attend that evening the lodge at its session Tuesday night decided to provide a special treat for the social session of the evening in the form of real elk steak. The meat has been ordered from Denver, Colo., and will be shipped in an ice pack so as to arrive here in time for the occasion. Elk steak is a meat that is seldom served, but a Denver man makes a specialty of supplying it to Elk lodges for special occasions.

CHARGES COAL FIRMS WITH RAISING WAGES TO AVOID FED. TAX

(The Associated Press.)

CANNELTON, Ind., Oct. 13.—Charges that many coal companies have padded their accounts in order to evade payment of the federal income taxes was made in a speech here today by Governor Goodrich of Indiana.

He said officials who were formerly paid $2,000 per year in salaries are now being paid $40,000.

HAD A BIG TAG DAY WITHOUT TAGS

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

HOUSTON, Oct. 13.—This is to prove that you don't have to have tags to operate a tag day celebration. Miss Florence Sterling was head of the Confederate Veterans' reunion fund here. Printer forgot to print the tags. "They were to have been little Confederate States flags," said she, "but we sold red, white and blue ribbons, instead. It's all the same and we raised just as much money."

HARDING INVADES THE SOUTH WITH SPEECH IN TENN.

(The Associated Press.)

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 13.—Senator Harding arrived here today where he speaks tonight. A trip over Civil War battlefields as a guest of the local Republicans was a feature of the entertainment program this afternoon. This marks the first speech of the candidate in a Southern state.

PRIVATE OWNERSHIP OF RAILROADS MORE COSTLY THAN BEFORE

(The Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Six months of private operation of railroads cost taxpayers more than two-thirds as much as two years and two months of federal control, Interstate Commerce Commissioner Woolley declared in an address here today.

Between March 1st and September 1st, as the result of the guaranteed income, roads cost the taxpayers of the country six hundred and thirty-four million dollars, due largely to strikes and freight congestion.

FEDERAL AGENTS IN SOUTH INVESTIGATE THE NIGHT RIDERS

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Agents of the Department of Justice throughout the South are today under orders to investigate night riders and the activities of such organization, it was announced by that department today.

Alleged threats to burn cotton and gins of the production of cotton is not stopped for a definite period will be thoroughly probed and federal prosecutions will be ordered if results warrant, the department declared.

WOMEN FIRST SMOKED IN RUSSIAN COURT

(International News Service.)

PARIS, Oct. 12.—The cigarette smoking habit among women was brought into civilized countries by ladies of the court of the former Russian czar, according to Edouard Poullet, a French writer. The wives of European diplomats at Petrograd returned home and launched it at Berlin and London, and within a short while their sisters in the United States were publicly using cigarettes. Incidentally the cigarette habit dealt a death blow to many manufacturers of fans, women finding that they could not very well manipulate a fan and smoke at the same time.

Ask for Cabinet Meeting

(The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Representatives of agricultural interests meeting here were hopeful today that President Wilson would give them an audience to discuss the downward trend of prices of farm products and to hear a protest against the currency deflation policy of the treasury department.

Southern cotton growers are active in the meeting.

Ask for Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The request that the president call a special cabinet meeting to consider credit difficulties for the farmers was made today by the national board of the farmers' organization today.

It was laid before the president through Secretary Tamm by Senators Hoke Smith and Overman.

Governors' Federal Board Meet

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Credit difficulties confronting the cotton and wheat growers and other groups now clamoring for federal aid to enable them to carry over the harvested crops were the major problems dealt with today when the fall meeting of the governors of all federal reserve boards convened at the treasury.

Practically every large producing group has on file urgent demands that the board lift the bars high enough to save the losses totalling several billion dollars which otherwise would be sustained in the process of the present normal price adjustment.

Warnings from cotton and wheat belts with threats of reprisals in one form or another to keep prices of staples to gear the war level have to the conference of leading financiers an importance unattached to any previous session since the armistice.

DIAZ EXILED FROM MEXICO, NOW BOUND FOR HAVANA, CUBA

"HOT COURT," ADMITS JUDGE

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 13.—Municipal court here is a "hot kind of a police court." Judge Seid admits it, even is proud of it. "We froze in here last winter and I won't go through it again," said he the first cold day. "No coat, no coat. Courts adjourned." Now there's lots of coats, lots of steam, lots of heat and plenty of court.

Interesting Talk on Chickens Given by Prof. Sanborn

One of the most interesting and highly entertaining addresses to which the farmers of East Volusia county have had the pleasure of hearing was delivered before the members of the Agricultural Community Council last evening at Casino Burgoyne by Prof. N. W. Sanborn, of the Department of Agriculture, University of Florida, one of the most noted experts on chicken raising in the United States and an authority country-wide.

He discussed in detail the various kinds and grades of chickens which farmers should keep, which ones lay the most, which should be eliminated from their stock, and urged every farmer to keep at least 50 chickens to supply the demand for eggs.

County Agent Dunaway, of Deland, who gave a talk on farm subjects, referring to the great farming industry of Kansas, and how Florida should emulate Kansas, in many respects.

Reports of the various committees will be given at the November meeting of the organization, stated S. H. Crosby of the marketing bureau, who promised some action on the curb market idea by this time, if the farmers took hold of the idea as they should.

The meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by the fairly large number of farmers present, who are taking considerable interest in their organization on the east side of the county.

LABOR PARTNERSHIP

Premier Giolitti says the world will soon follow Italy's example and give workmen everywhere a share in the supervision of all industries. When a master of practical politics like Giolitti makes a prediction it is well to take notice. For Giolitti has the reputation of never being positive in his statements until he has mastered his subject.

In Italy, the workmen are now meeting with the employers to evolve a plan for dual supervision of their mutual interests. That is the way Giolitti has saved Italy from Bolshevism. The workmen will have their spokesmen on the board of directors, or they will be represented at the meeting of stockholders. In either case, the workmen will know exactly how their business is managed and where the money goes.

Far-seeing capitalists will not fight the Italian plan of labor co-operation. Capital has nothing legitimate to lose by permitting labor to understand the ways of business. When labor knows the financial facts, there will be an end to exorbitant demands for wage increases. When labor knows the facts about output, there will be an end to the policy of slowing up. When labor, by direct contact, becomes acquainted with the vast importance of executive skill in modern industry, there will be a greater respect on the part of the man who works with his hands for the man who works with his head.

And, as executive control serves to keep up the workers' efficiency, so knowledge by the workmen of what the executives are doing will develop higher ability in management. For, when workman and manager come together as mutual supervisors, the manager will have to account for executive mistakes as the workman does for mistakes in the shop. Progress requires this mutual watchfulness, as education spreads among the workers. Giolitti is the first statesman to accept the fact and put it to practical use. He has saved Italy from Bolshevism by his act. That is the best proof of his vision.

RUTH AND THOR

Having scored 57 home runs, Babe Ruth now can take his proper place among the gods renowned in legend for their prowess.

He belongs, in fact, in the class of the great god Thor who performed wonders with the hammer he always carried. It is related of him that once with a mighty swing he hurled the hammer over a mountain. It fell with such impact that it cracked open the mountain and a new valley was formed.

There is no desire here to detract from Thor's record by comparison with Babe Ruth's, but, then, in fairness to the Babe, it should be pointed out that there is no evidence that Thor actually did what is claimed for him. There is even some question as to what mountain it was that he cracked so wide open with his hammer.

On the other hand, every one of

Hankins says:

HANKINS DRUG CO.
2-STORES-2

Babe Ruth's more than 50 home runs is authenticated by hundreds of thousands of witnesses who saw these miracles performed with their own eyes.

Moreover, Babe Ruth had no supernatural help, but performed these wonders single-handed, so to speak, unlike Thor, who, being a god, had certain occult advantages when he threw his hammer with such terrific effect.

Assuredly, Babe's place is among the gods and if the pantheon is already filled, let Thor get up and give his seat to one whose wondrous achievements are authenticated and guaranteed.

HOW THEY VOTE

It isn't true that, as many a politician has said, "the women will vote as the men vote."

That this is a fact is shown by the official returns of the Illinois primaries. In the Republican primaries there a powerful political boss (Thompson) was the issue. The fight was for and against the Thompson machine. The result?

The Thompson machine candidate for senator got a 9000 plurality of the male vote. But the anti-machine candidate got 38,000 more women's votes than the Thompson man.

The Thompson candidate for governor received 46,000 more votes of men than his opponent. But the anti-Thompson candidate got 38,000 more women's votes than the machine man.

Illinois women proved conclusively that they will not vote as men vote when men insist upon voting for political machines and political bosses.

Nobody better than the bosses themselves know why they were so emphatic in their opposition to woman suffrage.

LIFE'S COURSE

The setting sun passes over the western rim and its last beams fall upon an old man who watches from his hospital for the ending of his own day.

How like the course of the sun is the span of man's life!

It dawns with a pink flush of hope which quickly fades. It toils through the long middle stretch, bringing warmth and providing for them it protects.

Then, scarcely before we realize it, the zenith is passed and the rapid descent into the clouded west is started.

Clouds are as the accomplishments of man on his journey. They reflect the glory of the sun's rays.

In glorious tints of gold and mauve and saffron they hold the magic of a thing departed, they presage the rising of the sun in another land after its setting here, the coming of another life after the passing of this one.

HOLLAND LIFTING RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN VISITORS

(The Associated Press.)

THE HAGUE, Holland, Oct. 13.—Holland has lifted a number of travel restrictions upon foreign visitors who have heretofore been subjected to considerable difficulties and annoyances. The new regulations do away with the former compulsory police registration in respect of American, British, French, Italian and other tourists from western Europe, but it is still imposed upon Germans, Russians and others from eastern countries, owing to the fear of Bolshevist infection.

As a result of the former stringent rules, Holland has had very little tourist traffic this summer.

ROBBERS WERE POLITE

(International News Service.)

DENVER, Oct. 12.—Filling a baby carriage with several hundred dollars worth of clothing and jewelry, burglars were startled to hear the wail of an infant when they loaded the carriage full of stolen goods into an auto truck. The baby was returned to its sleeping mother without an alarm being raised and the robbers escaped with the loot.

In 1914 7,500,000 tons of fertilizer, worth $175,000,000, were consumed in this country.

LATEST NEWS OFF THE TICKET FROM NEW YORK MARKET

(Dow Jones Service.)

President Wilson has called a conference of anthracite miners and operators for October 18 to adjust any differences of the recent wage award.

The Polish-Russian armistice has been signed at Riga, effective October 18, thus closing hostilities at least for the time being between the Poles and Bolshevik forces.

All Cuban banks, including the International Bank, which suspended payment Saturday, were opened yesterday and it is believed that the moratorium may not run 50 days.

Rail heads have protested to President Wilson against the ruling of Marwick in holding from the roads further payments due them under the guaranteed provision of transportation.

A huge increase in commercial and agricultural paper is shown for last year in the government report, which indicates stocks and bonds declined $300,495,000.

President Parlo of the American Electric Railway Association, addressing the convention of street railway officials at Atlantic City, says prosperity is more general in the electric railway business today than at any time in the last two years, with the outlook bright for the future.

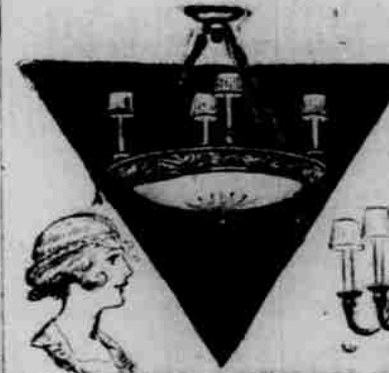

Harding denies that he has changed his League of Nation views and says he is still against the Wilson covenant as it is now constituted, but wants some league that will really bring about general peace. A vote of a majority of business men puts reduction in taxation ahead of the League of Nations question.

HER HUSBAND told her.
AND HE says it's true.
AND I have his word.
SHE'LL NOT be angry.
IF I put it here.
AND SHE'S just arrived.
FROM A little town.
IN THE middle West.
THE WHENCE he came.
AND THEN went back.
AND BROUGHT her here.
AND ON the day.
THAT SHE arrived.
HE TOOK her off.
TO THE little flat.
THAT WAITED her.
AND LEFT her there.
AND WENT to work.
AND HURRIED home.
AND SHE was there.
WITH REDDENED eyes.
AND SALTY tears.
AND IT appears.
FROM WHAT he says.
THAT WHEN he left.
SHE LOOKED ahoj.
AND FOUND the hole.
WHERE THE dumb-waiter is.

AND SHE thought it a cupboard.
AND IT just so happened.
THE WAITER was there.
AND IT wobbled a lot.
AND SHE got some naffs.
AND A lead paper weight.
AND NAILED the waiter.
SO IT wouldn't wobble.
AND FIXED it up.
WITH NICE clean paper.
AND TOOK some stuff.
FROM A crowded cupboard.
AND PUT it in.
AND THEN the junior.
OR SOMEBODY else.
PULLED ON the rope.
AND TORE it out.
AND DRAGGED it down.
WHILE SHE stood there.
AND THEN she guessed.
WHAT IT was for.
AND SHE cried all day.
AND THAT'S the story.
IT'S ALL there is.
THERE ISN'T any more.
I THANK you.

For the first time in the history of the magazine, the cover of the November 1964 issue of Time was devoted to the "New Negro" movement. The cover story, "The New Negro," was written by the magazine's editor, Walter D. Weyl, and was a tribute to the work of the NAACP. The cover also featured a photograph of a group of African American people, including a man and a woman, standing together.

in order to achieve greater financial security, as well as to make the most of the opportunities that the market offers. The first step is to determine your financial goals and needs. This will help you to decide how much money you need to invest and what type of investments you should make. The next step is to choose a reputable investment manager or advisor who can help you to make the most of your investments. Finally, you should regularly review your investments and make adjustments as needed. By following these steps, you can ensure that your investments are working for you and that you are achieving your financial goals.

GILBERT IS REMOVED FROM THE ROAD BD.; TUTEWILER APPT'D.; ALSO FORREST LAKE

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 12.—Governor Catts today removed John E. Gilbert, of Jacksonville, as a member of the state road department and appointed C. A. Tutewiler, of that city, to succeed him.

The governor's private secretary stated that Forrest Lake had requested by long distance telephone that his commission as a member of the department to which position he was appointed to succeed Chairman Smith, be mailed to him today in order that he might take part in the meeting of the department at Orlando Friday.

This would seem to indicate that his bond and oath have been mailed in. Today's developments make the third change in the personnel of the state road department within the past ten days. First, Chairman Smith's term expired on October 5, and the governor appointed Forrest Lake as his successor. Then L. C. Register, of Jasper, resigned his position as member, being succeeded by the appointment by the governor of W. A. Holt, of White Springs, and today John E. Gilbert is removed and Tutewiler appointed in his stead.

When all these men have qualified by filing oaths and bonds as required by law, but two of the board as constituted on October 1 will remain, namely, J. D. Smith, of Marianna, and Ed Scott, of Arcadia. These kaleidoscope changes make it impossible to predict what may happen next, and the customary greeting in Tallahassee is getting to be what is the latest in the road department?

CHAMPION SWIMMERS ARE "SOME" EATERS, SO FRENCH LEARN

(The Associated Press.)

PARIS, Oct. 13.—"Duke" Kahanamoku, Keoloha and Norman Ross, Hawaiian and American swimmers, not only smashed French swimming records during their recent visit to Paris, but established marks in another branch of sport that will stand for all time, according to the manager of the hotel at which they stopped. He is willing to hand them the eating championship of the world.

"Mon Dieu, they command us to bite with pommies frites, three of them," said the hotel man. The waiter produced what is generally thought at the hotel as sufficient for three persons but Norman Ross is alleged to have confiscated the whole platter while both Kahanamoku and Keoloha were inquiring where their own steak was. All the gesticulating eloquence of the headwaiter failed to convince the trio that the steak was meant for three. Vegetables, ham and eggs, cheese, fruit desserts followed in turn while the manager mused.

"Why they drink beer with all their meals," said the headwaiter, horrified at the heresy of not drinking wine for dinner. "And right in the midst of their meal they absorb a huge bowl of sweet chocolate."

When informed that the men were champion swimmers of the world, regular sea-lions, the headwaiter said:

"Sea-lions, not much, they are meat-eating tigers."

AMERICAN AVIATORS IN POLISH SQUADRON RETURN HOME SOON

(International News Service.)

WARSAW, Oct. 12.—Colonel Fauntleroy, commander, and the 14 other American aviators of the Kosciuszko Squadron, will soon be demobilized from the Polish army, and the most of them will return home to the United States.

The signing of armistices between Poland and Soviet Russia, and Poland and Lithuania will banish the need for intensive military activity, and although it is expected that the signing of a peace treaty will be delayed by the maneuvers of the politicians of all three countries, the demobilization of the Polish army will begin as soon as the armistice has been signed.

This will release the American aviators, who, it is understood, will be glad to return home after their service in France and Belgium and on the Russian front. Their places will be taken by Polish aviators trained by American and Italian aviation experts, and they will fly mostly Handley-Page airplanes.

The American flyers have seen hard service through two summers and one winter, scouting to locate, and bombing to disperse the enemy forces.

Some of them will give up aviation to return to their civilian lives and activities, the others planning to stick to flying and help develop it for civilian uses. When Colonel Fauntleroy returned to the front just before the last crucial activities, he said:

"We'll all be home again in a short time if this situation comes out favorably to the Polish arms. We are glad we came, and we will be glad to go when our services are no longer needed."

The authoritative word comes from Warsaw that the services of the American flyers have been appreciated and that they have covered themselves with all kinds of glory, winning reputations for courage and venturesomeness and getting results under adverse conditions. Thrilling escapes and effective fighting have marked their careers in the north. Promotions have been gained. Fauntleroy, first, from captain to major, and then to colonel, and the others in most instances being advanced.

With the departure of the Kosciuszko Squadron, there will be remaining practically no Americans in the Polish army, the members of Haller's army from the United States having all gone home excepting one regiment now on duty near Danzig. That regiment, too, will go soon, leaving no Americans.

RALEIGH HOUSEWIFE IS ANOTHER OF THE MANY WHO HAVE BEEN HELPED BY TAKING RE-CU-MA

It seems folly for people to suffer nowadays in these enlightened times from such things as lazy liver, constipation, rheumatism, loss of vim and working ability when such quick and positive help can be had by taking a few doses of the herb and root medicine RE-CU-MA. It has helped thousands from the path of ill health to the road of recovery and today it is the fastest selling proprietary remedy in the South; this result has been accomplished solely as a result of the kind words of those who have been benefited from taking the same. Mrs. R. W. Young, of Raleigh, North Carolina, residing at 511 Peck street, that city, has been greatly helped of a prolonged liver condition with all the usual signs of Dizziness, Headaches, Constipation, etc. Just a few doses were all that Mrs. Young found necessary to take; today she is feeling better than she has for years and gives all the credit to RE-CU-MA. You can get it at Hankins' Drug Co. and all good drug stores for $1.20 plus tax—Advt.

MAN O' WAR GREATEST HORSE OF THE AGE; WON QUARTER MILLION

(The Associated Press.)

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 13.—Man O' War, the splendid three-year-old which yesterday defeated Sir Barton in a mile and a quarter race over the Kenilworth Park race course, which is just outside of this city and just across the border from Detroit, winning a record purse of $75,000 and a $5,000 gold cup, is conceded to be the most remarkable thoroughbred ever bred on the North American continent.

Man O' War is owned by Samuel D. Riddle, of Philadelphia, and was ridden in Tuesday's race by Jockey Clarence Kummer, who received $5,000 for his few minutes' work. Kummer is one of the best jockeys in the country, alert at the post and a good judge of pace and as well as a strong finisher.

Sir Barton is owned by Commander J. K. L. Ross, famous Canadian race horse owner, who owns some of the great horses of the country.

Standing sixteen hands on his racing plates, Man O' War is leggy and inclined to angles. But he is a grand strider. Every time he doubles his legs under his body and turns on he huris himself 25 feet. He resembles in some respects his angular sire, which in 1908 won about every three-year-old stake that was worth while after he had been beaten by Colin in the Withers and Belmont Park and Colin had broken down in the running of the Tidal at Sheephead Bay. It has become the fashion of racing folk to call Man O' War a "beatiful type." But that, probably, is because of his splendid achievements. A success always looks good. He has a full brother, a maiden two-year-old called Playfellow, racing about New York, that is a much better favored horse. But no one would ever think of referring to Playfellow as a beautiful type. Playfellow is not yet a success.

Horse of the Century.

Man O' War has been called the horse of the century and he is all of that in American racing. Possibly he is the greatest horse that ever lived. Certainly he should stand today before the world unbeaten. The only defeat he has sustained in a career that began at Belmont Park in June, 1919, was in the running of the

The flying record again broken by a Frenchman, as usual, Captain De Romant flies at the rate of 181 miles an hour. We are perhaps not far from the 1,000-mile-an-hour record suggested by the humble shepherd in "King John and The Abbot of Canterbury," when he answered the king's puzzle with "rise with the sun and ride with the same." Men will actually go around the earth as fast as the sun now seems to go. Men's voices and written words now go around the earth seven times in one second, which is real speed.

The Facts of the Telephone Situation in Florida

By J. Epps Brown, President.
SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH CO.

The Company, The Public, The Employees

Adequate and efficient telephone service is essential to the continued prosperity of all commercial enterprises, and a telephone in the home for social intercourse is as necessary as a telephone in the place of business.

No telephone company can furnish this service without the full support of the public it serves. This is true because the interests of the public, the telephone company and its employees are identical; each must co-operate and neither can permanently profit at the expense of the other.

The Company furnishes the Plant and receives Profits.
The Employees furnish the Effort and receive Wages.
The Public furnishes the Revenue and receives Service.
The telephone situation is as much the concern of the public as it is of the company and its employees. The sound support of the public should be based upon a knowledge of the facts.

The telephone industry in Florida faces a crisis unparalleled during its entire history, the cumulative effect of conditions during the past four years; conditions which this Company was powerless to influence or control.

It is the purpose of this Company to fully inform the public of the facts of this situation.

This is the first of a series of advertisements to place before the public all the facts of the telephone industry in the State of Florida.

It is the duty of all who have need for telephone service now, and in the future, to carefully read and consider these facts and, if convincing, to give a quick, direct and cordial support to the Company.

If any statements are questioned, they can be verified.
Our whole claim for your support is based upon established facts.

The next advertisement will give a detailed statement of the Company's investment, expenses and revenues for the years 1916, 1917, 1918 and 1919.
